

This week, think about a process or task in your area of responsibility that could potentially be improved:

- Done more quickly
- Done more efficiently
- Made more fun

Employee Engagement, either your own or that of those you lead, doesn't just happen, nor can it be a one-time initiative accomplished during a finite period. To make it work, you have to live it and breathe it every single day!